

MANAGE Sponsored

Off-campus online collaborative training programme

on

NEW START-UP OPPORTUNITIES IN FISHERIES

11-14 July, 2022

Entrepreneurship plays a key role in economic growth of any sector. As an employment and income generation option, several new start-up opportunities exist in the fisheries sector too which need to be popularise among stakeholders.

Course outline

- Stakeholders' feasibility analysis
- Opportunities in value addition of fish
- Business plan preparation and investment analysis
- Need for inclusive entrepreneurship
- Success of community based enterprise development
- Activities of Agri-Business Incubation Unit of ICAR-CIFT
- NFDB initiatives on entrepreneurship development
- Policies and programmes for SMEs

The registration of training programme can be made through MANAGE website <https://www.manage.gov.in/trgModule/emailRegn.asp?tpno=EKM&tpyear=FDFD> or through an email to Course Director (tvjeyanthi@gmail.com). The link for the training programme will be sent to the registered participants well in advance before the training commences.

Course Directors

Dr. Pe. Jeyya Jeyanthi
Senior Scientist
Extension, Information and Statistics Division
ICAR-Central Institute of Fisheries Technology,
Matsyapuri P.O., Cochin -29
Email: tvjeyanthi@gmail.com
Mobile: 91-9895041252

Dr. Saravanan Raj
Director (Agricultural Extension)
National Institute of Agricultural Extension
Management (MANAGE)
Rajendra Nagar, Hyderabad- 30
Email: saravanan.raj@manage.gov.in
Mobile: 91- 8465007799

For further details

The Director, ICAR-CIFT, Cochin – 29

E-mail: aris.cift@gmail.com